

Current Concepts in Cardiopulmonary Care

Course Description

This two-day course is geared to providing the new and experienced nurse, CRNA and respiratory therapist with a review of cardiopulmonary system pathophysiology along with common issues seen often in today's environment. Also a review of heart failure, along with pulmonary hypertension, will be presented with common treatment plans. Finally, a discussion and presentation of sepsis and its effects on the heart and lungs will also be presented.

Program Learning Outcomes

This program prepares the learner to:

- Describe the cardiac electrical system in atrial fibrillation and atrial flutter.
- Understand how cardiac ablation works to correct atrial disturbances.
- Have a better understanding of the cardiac and respiratory systems' pathophysiology.
- List the different types of pulmonary hypertension.
- Describe how sepsis affects both the heart and lungs.

Agenda

Sign-in begins at 7:30 am. Each day includes a one-hour lunch (on your own), as well as a morning and afternoon break of 15 minutes each. The order of lectures presented and break times may vary according to speaker preference.
